

TAP SAMPLERS

We believe that everyone has a taste for a barley pop... just that some have not tapped into the right beer yet.

That was the mindset that prompted us to create a series of tap samplers.
With so many different styles, countries and tastes of beer offered, we wanted to take the opportunity to introduce you to your favorite.

We have assembled a variety of flavors from around the world within each sampler. You will have the chance to taste beers like a smooth citrus Hoegaarden, the nuts and caramel flavors of a Newcastle or a hand crafted draft cider from Woodchuck.
